

As a Citizen living in Utah, I have seen first-hand what happens when the news is reported with a one-sided edge, and I would urge any open-minded American to maintain the current cross-ownership ban. There is nothing to be gained by revocation of the current ban. Even if an area is overwhelmingly "left-" or "right-wing," to deny the voice of one group hurts the community as a whole. Please think very carefully about the consequences of allowing this law to be revoked.

Thank you very much for your time,

Jeremiah Lewis
